Correspondence Received - If Councillors would like a copy of any of the documents listed below please advise the clerk

1. Email received from a parishioner - I just wanted to email to say how much I am enjoying the wild flowers that run along the pavement on Old Oxford Road. Would it be possible to do a strip by the A40? I know because of visibility there would need some mown roadside but it would be lovely to wander along the green with the wild flowers both sides and it would enhance our growing hedgerow opposite the bus shelter.
